3. FX Forwards

- 3.1 We do not provide a currency trading service. You acknowledge and agree that you may only enter into FX Forwards for the purpose of facilitating payment for identifiable goods or services. If we reasonably believe that you intend to enter into FX Forwards for other purposes (including but not limited to engaging in currency trading), we:

- 3.1.1 may refuse an FX Order relating to an FX Forward; or

 - 4.1 Order requests. You may place a request for an FX Order (an "Order Request") via the Equals Money Platform by taking the steps and providing the information as prompted.

 - 4.2.3 fail to pay an amount you owe to us in accordance with these Terms when such amount became due.
 - 4.3 We are not required to notify you of our reasons for refusing an Order Request, but may choose to do so unless prevented by Applicable Laws.
 - 4.4 FX Exchange Rates. The indicative FX Exchange Rate will be communicated to you via the Equals Money Platform and will be available for immediate execution only. The indicative FX Exchange Rate may quickly change due to fluctuations in the foreign exchange market and we have no obligation to make such exchange rate available to you on a continuing basis.
 - 4.5 You acknowledge and agree that the final FX Exchange Rate in the Quote we give you in accordance with section 4.7 may therefore differ from the indicative FX Exchange Rate due to market fluctuations and other factors which are outside our control.
 - 4.6 We shall set out the final FX Exchange Rate for each requested FX Order in the Quote.
 - 4.7 Quotes. If we accept your Order Request, we will provide you with a quote ("Quote") which will include:
 - 4.7.1 the final FX Exchange Rate for the exchange of Supported Currencies;
 - 4.7.2 the amount in the relevant Supported Currency you will be required to pay us for the FX Transaction including any fees and charges (the "Settlement Amount");
 - 4.7.3 the date on which you must pay us the Settlement Amount (the "Settlement Date");
 - 4.7.4 the amount in the relevant Supported Currency we will pay to you for the FX Transaction (the "Delivery Amount"); and
 - 4.7.5 the date on which we will pay you the Delivery Amount (the "Delivery Date").
 - 4.8 Confirming an FX Order. If you accept a Quote, you are agreeing to place an FX Order and enter into an FX Transaction with us.

- 4.9 You may not cancel an FX Order once you have accepted a Quote.
- 4.10 An FX Order is legally binding on you and we shall have no responsibility for any error or inaccuracy in your Order Request (e.g. if you have inputted the wrong amount or Supported Currency).
- 4.11 You may request that we amend or cancel an FX Order if it has not been executed. We may, in our absolute discretion, amend or cancel an FX Order but we have no obligation to do so.
- 4.12 If you submit an FX Order after 5pm on a Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day (e.g., a weekend or bank holiday), your FX Order will be deemed to be received on the next Business Day.
- 4.13 FX Orders for FX Transactions that are to be executed at a future date will be deemed to be received on the date on which you wish the FX Transaction to be made.

5. Execution of FX Orders

- 5.1 It may not always be possible for us to execute your FX Order. You acknowledge and agree that we shall be under no obligation to execute your FX Order.
- 5.2 We may not execute your FX Order for, among others, the following reasons:
- 5.2.1 there is a lack of liquidity in the market for the relevant Supported Currency;
 - 5.2.2 there is market disruption;
 - 5.2.3 Applicable Laws would, in our reasonable opinion, prevent us from executing the FX Order; or
 - 5.2.4 where required by any Regulatory Authority or, our commercial partners or our service providers including, but not limited to, payments or banking services providers.
- 5.3 We shall not be liable to you where we have declined an FX Order or have been unable to execute an FX Order.

6. Confirmations

- 6.1 Following the execution of an FX Transaction, we will provide key details of the FX Transaction (a "Confirmation") via the Equals Money Platform.
- 6.2 The issuance of a Confirmation means that the FX Transaction can no longer be cancelled.

7. Settlement of FX Transactions

- 7.1 You shall pay us the Settlement Amount and any fees and charges on the Settlement Date.
- 7.2 You agree that we may debit the Settlement Amount from your Payment Account on the Settlement Date without further reference to you.
- 7.3 We shall pay the Delivery Amount to you in the relevant Supported Currency on the Delivery Date.

7.4 We shall credit the Delivery Amount to your Payment Account in accordance with your instructions.

7.5 If you have instructed us to fund a payment to a third party with the amount we owe to you in relation to an FX Transaction, such payment will be executed in accordance with the Terms.

8. Netting of payment obligations

We may offset any amount we owe you against any amount you owe to us. This may reduce the Delivery Amount we are required to make to you on certain Delivery Dates.

9. Termination of FX Transactions

9.1 If you wish to terminate an FX Transaction prior to the Settlement Date, you may request a quote for this (a "Termination Quote") via the Equals Money Platform.

9.2 The Termination Quote will include our charge for early termination (the "Early Exit Charge").

9.3 We shall have no obligation to provide a Termination Quote and may refuse to do so in our absolute discretion.

9.4 If we agree to provide a Termination Quote, it will be available for immediate execution only. We have no obligation to make the terms of such Termination Quote or the specified Early Exit Charge available to you on a continuing basis.

9.5 We will calculate the Early Exit Charge on the basis of various factors including market conditions and any costs we have incurred such as the costs of hedging the FX Transaction. The Early Exit Charge may therefore be a significant amount and we are unable to predict what it might be at any particular time.

9.6 When you pay an Early Exit Charge, this will discharge your obligations in relation to the relevant FX Transaction.

10. Margin

10.1 We may require you to pay funds to us as security before executing your FX Order ("Margin").

10.2 We may also require you to increase the amount of Margin after the FX Order (a "Margin Call") during the term of the FX Transaction.

10.3 You must meet any such Margin or Margin Call within 24 hours of a request for Margin or Margin Call in accordance with section 10.1 or 10.2 or we may cancel your FX Order or FX Transaction (as applicable).

10.4 Any such Margin or Margin Call shall be for the purpose of securing all your actual or contingent, prospective, present or future obligations to us under these Terms.

10.5 We shall acquire full ownership of any amount paid to us as Margin and shall deal with such funds as our own.

10.6 We will owe you a debt equal to the amount of any Margin received by us. We shall pay to you all or part of any amount of this debt to the extent that we consider, in our discretion, that the amount of Margin you have paid exceeds the amount required by us to secure or cover all your obligations under these Terms.

10.7 Margin held by us is not treated as electronic money and is not safeguarded. In the event of our insolvency, you will rank as a general creditor of ours in relation to any such Margin paid to us.

11. Risks

11.1 You acknowledge that you have considered and accepted that FX Transactions carry risks, including, but not limited to:

11.1.1 Credit risk. FX Transactions are entered into between you and us on a principal-to-principal basis. You are therefore exposed to the risk that we fail to perform our obligations to you under these FX Service Terms.

11.1.2 Market risk. Foreign exchange rates fluctuate due to market volatility and other factors including economic and political events. Such fluctuations could affect the value of FX Transactions.

11.1.3 Liquidity risk. Supported Currencies may be or become illiquid. This could affect the execution or settlement of FX Transactions. You must therefore be prepared to remain in an FX Transaction until it has settled as you may not be able to exit an FX Transaction early.
